Dear All,

I have prepared the 1st draft of revised manuscript and reply to the reviewers. I would be grateful if you could see them and provide feedback. Although I think I addressed most of the comments, I have a few comments that are difficult for me to reply.

> Miguel,
Some comments from the reviewer are related to our sampling size (why we prepared 200 questionnaire sheets?). Honestly, I don't know how I should answer the comments. If you could help me to reply them, it would be great.

> Indonesian colleagues,
One reviewer asks about general information about Palu. I need your help for this question. I will later send you an email with more details.

Regards,
Takabatake

Dear All,

Great news, our paper has now been accepted.
Thank you all again for your kind cooperation.

Anisa,
IJDRR is a very difficult journal to be accepted.
Having a paper accepted as a undergraduate student is an excellent achievement!

You should be proud of it!

Regards,
Takabatake
